BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Reggie Wright, is a dynamic motivational speaker who inspires educators and students to cultivate the conditions for academic success. Featured on CNN for his powerful messages, his drive to empower others stems from his own experiences overcoming adversity. After a professional basketball career in Europe, Dr. Wright earned advanced degrees, including a Doctorate in Educational Leadership. He is certified in evidence-based programs such as Social-Emotional Learning, Mental Health First Aid, and Character Development Curriculum. Dr. Wright serves on a nonprofit board and mentors youth. He enjoys spending time with his family, working out, and is currently writing his first book.
